NOTE

JPRS publications contain information primarily from foreign newspapers, periodicals and books, but also from news agency transmissions and broadcasts. Materials from foreign-language sources are translated; those from English-language sources are transcribed or reprinted, with the original phrasing and other characteristics retained.

Headlines, editorial reports, and material enclosed in brackets [] are supplied by JPRS. Processing indicators such as [Text] or [Excerpt] in the first line of each item, or following the last line of a brief, indicate how the original information was processed. Where no processing indicator is given, the information was summarized or extracted.

Unfamiliar names rendered phonetically or transliterated are enclosed in parentheses. Words or names preceded by a question mark and enclosed in parentheses were not clear in the original but have been supplied as appropriate in context. Other unattributed parenthetical notes within the body of an item originate with the source. Times within items are as given by source.

The contents of this publication in no way represent the policies, views or attitudes of the U.S. Government.

PROCUREMENT OF PUBLICATIONS

JPRS publications may be ordered from the National Technical Information Service, Springfield, Virginia 22161. In ordering, it is recommended that the JPRS number, title, date and author, if applicable, of publication be cited.

Current JPRS publications are announced in Government Reports Announcements issued semi-monthly by the National Technical Information Service, and are listed in the Monthly Catalog of U.S. Government Publications issued by the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402.

Indexes to this report (by keyword, author, personal names, title and series) are available from Bell & Howell, Old Mansfield Road, Wooster, Ohio 44691.

- 10) Income from debts collected for taxes due and related debts, if these were local budget income before they were cancelled; such income is treated as being income over and above the plan.

3. In addition to income mentioned in paragraph 1, the following are the income is the direct income of the individual voivodship budget:

- 1) Income set as a percentage of the value of retail sales and services of socialized commercial and service units included in the central and local plan up to 101 percent of the amount of such income as defined in Appendix No 2.

- 2) Payments from general savings banks in the amount set by the Minister of Finance, as a percentage of the amounts of savings on deposit,
- 3) Turnover tax from enterprises and organizations conducting games of chance, if they are included in the local budgets,
- 4) Other payments, other than those listed in paragraph 1, point 2, collected by organizational units subordinate to the voivodship people's councils and agencies of local bodies of the state administration at the voivodship level.

4. The voivodship people's council may establish the proportions of the following:

- 1) The voivodship's own budget as a share of the income listed in paragraph 2, point 7, of the income of the lowest level local budgets included in the consolidated budget of the voivodship,
- 2) The lowest level local budgets included in the consolidated budget of the voivodship as a share of the income mentioned in paragraph 3, points 1-3.

Article 5. Budget income which is not local budget income is income of the central budget.

Article 6. 1. The Minister of Finance will set the percentage rates of the income discussed in Article 4, Paragraph 3, Point 1 for the consolidated voivodship budgets by 31 January 1980.

2. In the event that the income discussed in Article 4, Paragraph 3, Point 1, is not obtained in the amounts set in Appendix 2, the Minister of Finance will make up the shortage to 99 percent of the amount, from the central budget.

Article 7. 1. The voivodship heads will provide the drafts for the unit and joint budgets of the voivodships and present to the voivodship people's councils drafts of the budget resolutions together with drafts of the voivodship socioeconomic plans by 31 December 1979.

2. The voivodship heads will set the deadlines for the local bodies of the state administration at the lowest level to submit the budget drafts to the people's councils.

3. Local bodies of the state administration at the lowest level will draft the budgets by 31 December 1979.

Article 8. 1. The people's councils will approve the individual local budgets broken down into sections and parts.

2. The voivodship people's councils may approve expenditures of local budgets in excess of the figures established in the budget law, and the people's councils at the lowest level may approve sums higher than those implied by the resolution of the voivodship people's council, provided that their own income is set higher, except for income specified in Article 4, Paragraph 3, Point 1.

3. The regulation of Paragraph 2 also applies in the cases described in Article 42, Paragraph 3, of the law dated 25 November 1970, Budgetary Law (DZIENNIK USTAW, No 29, Item 244).

Article 9. A reserve is established for unforeseen expenditures in the joint budgets of the voivodships and amounts to 0.5 percent of ongoing expenditures.

Article 10. The local bodies of the state administration are charged to keep an ongoing watch to see that budget balance is maintained, to insure that income is realized promptly, and to prevent expenditures which would exceed the amount of income obtained and resources in the reserve fund.

2. The Minister of Finance establishes the principles and frequency of bank audits to maintain balance in the local budgets.

3. If it is found that balance is not being maintained in a local budget at the lowest level, the local body of the state administration will apply for credit from the voivodship's reserve fund.

4. In the event balance is not being maintained in an individual voivodship budget or if there is a shortage of funds in the voivodship reserve funds for awarding the cash grant mentioned in Paragraph 3, the voivodship head will issue a request that the bank grant bank credit.

5. Bank credit is subject to repayment out of the voivodship's reserve fund. Interest on the credit incurred to balance the individual budget of the voivodship is paid out of the voivodship reserve fund, and in other instances, out of the reserve fund of the budget which was given the cash grant which caused the debt to be incurred.

Article 11. In cases justified by important economic or social considerations the voivodship people's council, or, with its authorization, the voivodship head, may establish guidelines on the subject of essential alterations in the income and expenditures of local budgets at the lowest level.

Article 12. 1. In the event installations and facilities are put into operation later than planned, the funds provided in the local budgets for 1980 to carry out tasks in these installations and facilities are subject to corresponding reduction, and the amount by which the funds are reduced are to be transferred to the central budget by 31 December 1980.

2. The Minister of Finance will establish the types of installations (facilities) and principles for settlements described in Paragraph 1.

Article 13. 1. A quarter of the local budget excess obtained in 1979, after funds from unutilized special-purpose subsidies are returned to the central budget, is transferred to the local reserve fund. The rest of the excess is at the disposal of the people's council or, upon its authorization, the local body of the state administration.

2. If as the result of the 1979 deduction for the local reserve fund the size of this fund were to exceed 5 percent of the size of the ongoing expenditures of the local budget or increase the amount by which this limit has already been exceeded, the funds exceeding 5 percent of the size of ongoing expenditures of the local budget are allocated to add to the voivodship development fund for socialized small industry and to expand the production capacity of construction-installation brigades and municipal enterprises.

Article 14. The local reserve fund is a cash reserve of the individual local budget.

2. The reserve fund may be allocated to:

- 1) cover a shortage of the individual local budget at the end of the year,
- 2) initially supply enterprises included in the local plan and construction-installation teams with turnover funds, and to make up shortages in these units' turnover funds,
- 3) make repayable cash grants to budget-financed establishments.

In addition, the voivodship's reserve fund may be allocated to grant, during the year, repayable cash grants to the local budgets at the lowest level and to cover shortages in these budgets, if they cannot be covered out of their own reserve funds.

Article 15. The decision to allocate the reserve fund for the purposes listed in Article 14, Paragraph 2, Points 1 and 2, and the funds discussed in Article 13, Paragraph 2 is made by the appropriate people's council or by the local body of the state administration given the council's authorization to do so, and the local body of the state administration makes the decision to grant repayable cash grants out of the reserve fund.

Article 16. The people's council determines the scope and deadline for the local body of the state administration to file information on changes in the budget.

Article 17. Local road maintenance expenditures for which the Minister of Transportation is the chief body of state administration are financed out of the central budget.

Article 18. Besides the instances set down in Article 84, Paragraph 2 of the Budget Law, the following are violations of budget discipline:

- 1) Lack of conscientiousness in keeping accounting records, or the filing of dishonest financial reports,
- 2) Accumulation and maintenance of unnecessary or excessive reserves.

Article 19. 1. The Council of Ministers is authorized to: use central budget surpluses accumulated in previous years to finance additional needs of the socialist economy in connection with the execution of socio-economic tasks, and especially to finance the repayment of bank credit incurred for investments and exchange-rate differences stemming from foreign transactions.

2. Regulations of Article 56 of the Budget Law are applied appropriately to the use of funds insuring the implementation of economic tasks.

Article 20. The Minister of Finance is authorized to:

- 1) take into account in income and expenditures the budget effects of financial organizational changes, changes in prices and tariffs, and changes in the principles of the self-financing system of enterprises and other organizational units,
- 2) reduce or increase subsidies for investments in joint voivodship budgets, if the remaining funds in the clearings of the local investment funds and the investment funds of budgetary units at the end of 1979 will be greater or lower than projected in the course of drafting the budget for 1980,
- 3) make changes in compensatory subsidies in joint voivodship budgets in connection with the introduction as of 1 January 1980 of the new principles of operation and the self-financing system of socialized small industry and the alteration of the financial plans of the units of socialized small industry and enterprises of municipal construction for the tasks defined in the National Socioeconomic Plan for 1980,
- 4) make changes in the compensatory subsidies in joint voivodship budgets, if as a result of reducing or extending the heating season there are substantial deviations in the realm of the actualization of budget income from the enterprises of the communal economy in relation to the planned targets.

Article 21. 1. The following will be subject to an earnings tax:

- 1) labor-related earnings paid by socialized work establishments to employees engaged in these plants as their second or further place of work, if the earnings in the basic [first] and later places of work exceed a total of 6,000 zlotys per month altogether, except that:
  - a) earnings obtained by college professors, teachers, physicians, and other medical employees are taxed beginning with the third place of work,
  - b) earnings obtained by legal counsel are subject to tax in the second and further place of work only for work in a position other than that of legal counsel,
  - c) in the event that the amount of earnings in the first place of work is under 6,000 zlotys, the tax in further places of work applies only to the amount by which the total earnings exceed 6,000 zlotys altogether,
- 2) Bonuses awarded to employees out of funds not included in the financial plan of the mother workplace, except for state, ministry, and voivodship awards for special achievement -- at a rate of 10 percent.

2. The regulation of Paragraph 1 does not apply to earnings on the work of employees of seasonal recreation centers for children and youth or to earnings from commercial services rendered to the population in the form of the delivery of milk, bread, and other commodities.

3. By way of an ordinance, the Minister of Finance will establish the tax rates ranging from 10 percent to 21.5 percent:

- 1) on the earnings for work in the second and later places of work,
- 2) on the earnings from contract work or commission contracts; this does not apply to contracts concerning artistic, literary, scientific, educational, or journalistic activity or creativity.

Article 22. In settlements between the local budgets and the central budget, the Minister of Finance will take into account the financial impact of changes in taxation discussed in Article 21.

Article 23. 1. Regulations of the law concerning

- 1) voivodship people's councils also apply to the people's councils of towns with the rank of voivodship,
- 2) voivodship administrators also apply to the presidents of towns with voivodship rank.

2. References in the law to local budgets at the lowest level are taken to include budgets of towns, city-sections, and gminas (towns and gminas).

Article 24. In 1980, Article 5, Paragraph 2, Point 1 will not apply in the realm of local budgets; Articles 16-20, Article 40, Paragraphs 1 and 2, and Article 43, Paragraph 1, Point 2 will not apply in the realm of the division of the local budgets into parts; Article 67, Paragraph 1 will not apply in the realm of the transfer of credit between parts; nor will Article 73 and Articles 76-78 of the law dated 25 November 1970 -- Budget Law (DZIENNIK USTAW, No 29, Item 244).

Article 25. The Minister of Finance is authorized to include in the central budget up to 31 December 1979 the funds of the local budgets which remain in connection with failure to execute the local investment plan or failure to turn over new installations and facilities for use or substantial delay in turning them over.

Article 26. 1. The law is effective as of 1 January 1980, except for Articles 7 and 25, which are effective as of the day of promulgation.

2. The regulations of Article 21 apply to earnings and income due for the period from 1 January 1980 to 31 December 1980.
